Claims

It was brought to my attention that some members still do not understand why we do not have all the claims in Valley's name. If we did it would cost the club $10,500 a YEAR in maintenance fees because we could not do the small miners waver. If we have 9 claims in valley's name and 9 in members names we can do the small miners waver and we do not have a maintenance fee to pay. We are going to do a Quick claim deed on the 9 claims that are in members names and have 2 names per claim instead of 6 to 8 names like we have now. After that we will have a lease agreement with these persons and they will lease them back to Valley. I hope this will clear up some of the confusion. If you have any more questions call me at 951-316-2568

BLOOD BANK NEWS “MVP”

Thank you to those who have recently donated to our Blood Bank account. Be sure to mention “MVP” when you donate. Pam Maguire let me know about her recent donation. That brings her total up to 5 donations this year. I plan to donate on Oct 6th at our church – this time I'll remember to credit the correct account. Thank you to Dave Milliken, he provided the Blood bank with 24 kt gold pieces (2 for Blood Bank and 2 for the Rendezvous Detector Hunt). He is also making some beautiful jewelry for a special drawing. Dave has been a big supporter of the Blood Drive throughout his membership. We thank him greatly for his generosity. Keep up the good work. You can check for local donation centers or events at <https://www.lstream.org/>

The need is constant, the process is simple, and the results are priceless.

Prez Says-

The year is quickly coming to an end. I've enjoyed being President, but cannot continue in the New Year. We started the nominations for next year's officers. Sue Baranauskas has agreed to be on the ballot as Treasurer, but we didn't get any takers for President, Vice President or Secretary. If you have enjoyed Valley Prospectors, want to help in the coming year, or just like to get involved be sure to put your name on the ballot. The club is possible because of you – become involved. There are plenty of people to help you succeed. Give it a try – you will like it.

Thank you to the volunteers at Old West Days: Steve and Mary Schubert, Mark & Brenda Detter, Dunk, Joe & Sandy Harter, John and Jack Howell and me.

Always looking for that “Big Gold”, Lorraine Frost

WagonMaster Roundup – “Dunk”

Retired during the week enjoyed a beautiful day at our Randsburg claims. Lunch potluck was followed by gold in every pan. Old West Days was a huge success for the town of Randsburg raising needed funds for the Rand Museum and Valley Prospectors impressed a lot of newcomers and sold lots of gold at their booth. We had a great potluck Friday night at the claim followed by a Saturday night potluck of a whole roasted pig and live band entertainment. Those that drywashed found gold in every pan and enjoyed the free pancake breakfast on Saturday morning.

Rendezvous 2013 Thank You from Dunk and Lorraine October 25-27, 2013

Each year other clubs and Valley members help to make Rendezvous a great weekend event.

This year is no different. With help from our friends at First Class Miners, Bob Wright, Digger Dan, Garrett Metal Detectors, Whites Electronics and other Valley members we will have spectacular event prizes and Lady Luck drawing items. In 2013, Valley Prospectors is very grateful to Legends Prospecting Supplies and Metal Detectors. Their donation and huge discounts on metal detectors and accessories will help make Rendezvous a great opportunity to win fabulous prizes. This family owned business in Hemet should be considered when making your next prospecting purchases. Call John and Mary Bucholzer with your needs (951-925-5730).

We still are accepting donations for the hunt and Lady Luck. We will graciously accept them at the next meeting or at the event.

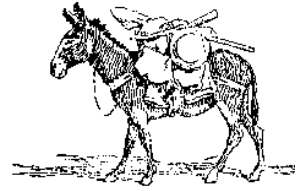

On another note – Don't forget that you can tailgate and we are looking forward to all those Chili entries. If Chili and not your thing then bring a salad, side dish, corn bread or some great dessert. You will also need to bring your own table and chairs since we don't have park picnic tables this year.
